First Rental Rehabilitation Grants Award To 76 Areas, One State

Samuel R. Pierce, Jr., Secretary of Housing and Urban Development, announced today that 76 cities and urban counties and one state are the first to receive grants, totaling $14.2 million, to create public/private partnerships for the rehabilitation of rental housing in low - and moderate-income neighborhoods.

The awards, under the Rental Rehabilitation program signed into law by President Reagan in November, 1983, will attract at least another $14.2 million in private financing to the development projects. The results will mean the rehabilitation of more than 2,840 apartment units.

Approximately 2,800 housing vouchers and rent certificates also will be provided to the communities to help lower-income tenants remain in the rehabilitated buildings, or relocate to other suitable housing.

"These grants provide the best and most effective approach to preserving and upgrading America's precious rental housing stock,"

U.S.A. Dollar

The USA's high-flying dollar has regained altitude and is poised to soar even higher in the months ahead.

The dollar lost some ground last week on signs that the USA's economy is slowing and interest rates might slip. But it has climbed this week and surged against major cuurencies in light volume Tuesday.

"The dollar represents a flight to quality and a hedge against deflation (falling prices and risks to big lenders)," said Timothy F. Scala, a New York based currency consultant. "Interest rates had been holding the dollar up, but I think long rates could drop 2 points now without fazing the dollar at all."

That's good news for the record number of Americans expected to take European vacations in the fall. But it means more adjustments for USA manufactures whose foreign competitors are aided by the dollar's 30%-plus overvaluation.

Neither the USA's massive trade deficit, estimated at $130 billion for this year, nor Europe's low inflation.

New Executive Director Of Girl Scout Council Inc.

Kathleen M. Houston

Executive Director

"From the beginning in 1912, the Girl Scouts were breaking molds." "For example, it was not the traditional thing for girls to go camping as they did." "Just as when we first started, we're teaching them how to work with others, how to make decisions." "Although some of the activities Girl Scouts participate in have changed, the basic motiviation hasn't changed." "We're still helping girls to grow and to develop self-reliance and to strive to meet their full potential as women," states Kathleen M. Houston (Kathy) the new Executive Director of Pacific Peaks Girl Scout Council, Inc.

Kathy has come to the Pacific Northwest from Duluth, Minnesota, where she had been the Executive Director, of Northern Pine Girl Scout Council, for almost five years. among Kathy's experience, within the Girl Scout movement, are positions as: Camping and Program Specialist, Field Director and numerous volunteer positions. Kathy also co-authored the book, Wide Games: Activities for Large Groups.

The World Conference brought together over 600 women and girls from 104 countries who are active in the Worls Wide Girl Scouting/Guiding movement.

Dinah traveled from Penylan, Cardiff, Wales in order to attend the conference and to visit Washington State. She is a retired Psychotherapist and teacher of Psychotherapy at the University Hospital of Wales, in Cardiff. Dinah stated, "This has been a very special holiday for me, we lived as a family at the World Conference." "I especially enjoyed the wonderful Girl Scouts that demonstrated their skills and dances during lunches and mid-day breaks, at the World Conference." "The facilities at Macy Girl Scouts of the U.S.A.'s Conference Center in Briarcliff Manor, N.Y. and the United Nations building were also very impressive," reflected Dinah.

WORDS OF WISDOM
DEUTERONOMY 31, vs 14-

And the Lord said unto Moses, Behold, thy days approach that thou must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua, went, and presented temselves in the tabernacle of the congregation.

And the Lord appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle.

And the Lord said unto Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy father; and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land, whither they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them. Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall befall them; so that they will say in that day, Are not these evils come upon us, because our God is not among us?

And I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.

Now therefore write ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel.

For when I shall have brought them into the land which I sware unto their fathers, that floweth with milk and honey; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and waxen fat; then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke me, and break my covenant.

About The Only Bible The World Will Read

The time has arrived when the lives of Christians are about the only Bible which the world will read; - When what we are, has more weight than what we say; - When deeds speak more loudly than words.

The final test of a man's Christianity is not in that of professed belief: But always and every where in the sphere of conscious and of love.

Dr. S.D. Gordon mentions four great tests of character. First, the Home Test: How a man treats those with whom he lives. Second, The Business Test: How a man conducts himself towards his customers and employees. Third, The Social Test: How a man acts toward those who do not enjoy the same social advantages as himself. Fourth, The Success Test: How a man behaves himself where favoring circumstances bring him wealth, power, position and honor.

It is related of a great artist he was wondering in the mountains of Switzerland, where some officials met him and demanded his pass-port, "I do not have it with me," he replied, "But my name is Done." "Prove it, if you are," replied the officials, knowing who Done was, but not believing that this was he. Taking a piece of paper the artist hastily sketched a group of pheasants who were standing near, and did it with such grace and skill that the official exclaimed; "Enough, you are Done."

The world cares little for mere professions; but the man who emerges successfully from the four fold test laid down by Dr. Gordon, carries the evidence of his geniusness with him.

Democratic Candidate For U.S. Congress

(TACOMA) -- James Klaproth, Democratic candidate for the 6th Congressional District, held a press conference in Tacoma, WA, to formally announce his candidacy and release the following statement.

"There is only one Democrat in this race for the 6th Congressional Distric and that is myself." My opponent, Norm Dicks, ever since his meeting with KGB operative Georoi Arbatov (head of Moscow's USA-Canada Institute) in his Moscow hotel room last year, has abundantly demonstrated his growing affinity towards Moscow's explicit aim to dismantle America's Strategic Defense Initiative (beam weapon defense systems), while they agressively pursue the implementation of such systems and are poised for a military confrontation with Western Europe. My KGB-Democratic opponent has introduced such legislation as H.J. Resolution 523 & 524 which calls for an "immediate, mutual and verifiable moratorium" on testing U.S. ASAT weapons (when the USSR has successfully tested more than half a dozen ASAT systems whil the U.S. has tested none against a target) and a ban on space-based or space directed weapons respectfully.

"In order to neutralize the pending threat of a Russian confrontation in Europe, we must fully implement the Strategic Defensive Initiative on a crash program basis. This must be coupled with an unequivocating committment to America's first line of defense -- Western Europe -- by including them under a defense shield against nuclear missiles and the immediate deployment of neutron bombs to prevent any Soviet armored advance.

Entertainment , Beauty & Fashion Tips

Ageless Beauty Total Sophistication

Classic good looks, ageless beauty and total sophistication are all part of the image Diahann Carroll projects. How does she maintain with such a hectic schedule? Proper diet. "It has everything in the world to do with it," she explained in a recent interview. "You just can't go around eating all those goey, fattening foods you love, although everyone should be naughty once in a while.

The lovely Black superstar prefers not to wear a lot of cosmetics-but when she does, it is eye makeup. "In my business, communication is my major concern. I try to get my eyes as large and as definite as possible so I can communicate," Dianhann admits.

Her nightly ritual consists of soaking in a tub "doused with generous portions of whole milk." Next, she rubs raw olive oil on her face and sleeps with "lots of towels." I love to bathe in milk," reveals the dynamic Ms. Carroll, "but I never drink it-too fatty. For my skin, though, I believe in grease, lots and lots of it."

▲One of Diahann's best assets is her eyes—which she tries to make up in a manner that makes them appear large and defined.

Proverbs 1

The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel;

To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words of understanding;

To receive the instruction of wisdom, justice, and judgment, and equity;

To give subtilty to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion.

A wise man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels:

To understand a proverb, and the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge: but fools despise wisdom and instruction.

My son, hear the instruction of thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother:

For they shall be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.

My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not.

We welcome news of your church and civic events.

First Annual Local Music Convention

Beginning September 3, 1984, Victory Temple Worldwide Evangelistic Church of God in Christ will enter into its first annual local Music Convention. The convention runs through September 8,1984. Bringing together some of the state's finest choirs, groups and musicians, this promises to be a great time of singing and music. Featured will be the Worldwide Evangelistic choir, which during the convention will be recording live its first album. The choir will be under the direction of David L. Allen of Winston-Salem, North Carolina. Allen, the writer and composer of such gospel hits as "Let Us Not Be Weary in Well-Doing" and "When All God's Children Get Together", has worked with various well-known artists such as Keith Pringle and Donald Vails, writing much of the material that has made great in the field of gospel music. With a special custom set of words and music, Allen will be working with the Victory Temple Choir and also promoting the final product throughout the country.

Services began nightly at 8:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, and at 7:00 p.m. on Saturday, September 8th. In addition,on Wednesday through Friday, day sessions from 9:00 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. will feature workshops on many of the fine points of the music ministry.

Many of the finest in gospel music will be in attendance each night. For more information, or if your group or choir, or yourself, a musician or soloist, would like to be on program, call Victory Temple at 323-7364.

The Pastor of Victory Temple Worldwide Evangelistic Church of God in Christ is Rev. Dr. Lawrence V Gray, and the Minister presiding at this convention is Minister David Daniels.

Christ Temple Church Host 20th Anniversary

Greater Christ Temple Church will be hosting its 20th Annual Youth Jubilee Friday & Saturday, Aug. 24th & 25th at 1926 S. "G" Street, Rev. C. E. Montogomery, Pastor. The theme is "Young, Saved, & Proud Of It!"

There will be an evangelistic service Friday at 7:30 p.m. with real life testimonies of God's miracle working powers. Anointed singing will be provided by the church's own young adult choir and other local church groups. The evening will climax with the ministering of the word of God!

Saturday's festivities start at 11 a.m. & continue throughout the day. There will be bible games, quizzes, speech contests, & a bar-B-que dinner followed by a dramatization called "The Last Soul" which depicts the struggle between an angel & Satan over the last soul to be saved before the rapture. An evangelistic service will close out the evening.

The public is cordially invited to attend. For more information call Min. Timothy Thomas at 627-2524 or 272-5679.

Tony Brown's Comments

Carl Lewis, Watch Your Back

The rumor that a gay activist group would hold a press conference after the XXIII Olympiad and introduce members of the American team, gold medals and all, who are homosexual and lesbian gave the Games a different dimension.

Because this mythical group allegedly consists of some of the most talented and media-renowned athletes in the world, the implications could be staggering.

As the rumor made its debut, Carl Lewis, the biggest name among the 7,000 athletes participation in the Games, announced a precompetition press conference. One Los Angeles sportswriter reported that "brash British reporters planned to ask him exceedingly private questions with no bearing on running or jumping."

The world's fastest human kept 700 members of the press waiting for 31 minutes. They could pass their time with the 12 mimeographed pages detailing the 23-year-old runner-jumper's phenomenal accomplishments.

They also had time to comtemplate the possibility that Lewis would tie Jesse Owens' record of four gold medals.

For months, the outspoken young man has treated us to a conscious stream of unconsciousness. He certainly has earned his newest title: Charisma Champ of the Olympics. Although he is something of a showboat who puts on a winning performance for the press, the scrutiny worries him. And it should.

What he will learn is that is not always what is reported about him, but how it is reported. For example, one magazine said that the athlete "favors the gaudiest of the skintight warmup suits."

An Atlanta sprotswriter in the gaggle of 700 gathered journalists, obviously disappointed that Lewis's manager opened the press conference with the urging that the questions be "in positive tone," devoted his entire column to innuendo.

About the Olympic gold medalist, he said: That voice, so soft... Carl Lewis is the next size up of Grace Jones." He then describes Grace Jones as "punk-rock bizarre... Grace wears leather nighties."

"And here comes Carl Lewis looking for all the world like the Olympic edition of a Grace Jones video in which our hero-heroine runs 100 meters in 3.2 seconds...," the writer not too gracefully added.

He then made a series of unrelated points: Lewis "wore gold chains as well as a red satin sleeveless shirt so we could enjoy the fine carving of his upper body." Lewis's answering machine, the Atlantan reported, tells callers "...and Tasha (his dog) thanks you for calling, too."

And because Lewis wants to become a famous actor and corporate spokesman, the writer asserted that he needed to maintain a wholesome image. "To that end, Lewis found it necessary to deny rumors he uses cocaine and is homosexual," Dave Kindred wrote in The Atlanta Constitution.

While other journalists are somewhat more subtle, you don't need a Ph.d. to get the message. There is enormous space assigned to the fact that Lewis collects silver and French crystal, wears "trendy attire" and, "favors the gaudiest of skintight warmup suits," according to Time Magazine.

Tony Kornheiser of the Washington Post adds: "He is seen as a prissy prima donna--the Maria Callas of cinders."

The hot-dogging, genuinely superior amateur athlete lives in a Houston mansion and earns an estimated $1 million a year. He is reported to be fascinated by the behind the scenes and on-camera TV doings.

"My objective," he said, "is to be the role model, not the rich man." If he does not pay closer attention to his image-and how it is projected-he many not become either a role model or rich.

He can control the press' insatiable appetite for scandal by being very circumspect of his public demeanor and demonstrating his natural poise and humility rather than hiding it with flippant remarks which can be misconstrued. He can also get himself a new wardrobe.

Letter To The Community

Dear Parents & Community:

Our Club, The Al, Davies Boys & Girls Club, is in desperate need of community support. This includes volunteers, parents and business persons in our community support. It is very essential that we build up a good report between the club and the community. Al Davies is one of the most beautiful clubs in the Pacific Northwest, certainly one of the most modern of the facilities, having opened in June of 1981. Yet, sadly, we have one of the lowest memberships. Parents have bussed their children to other clubs for various reasons, the majority of which I dare not elaborate on since they can be attributed to circumstances prior to my tenure. Subsequently, The Al Davies Boys & Girls Club has been threatened with possible closure if our membership does not increase.

It's going to take more than a new director and new staff to bring this club back up to satisfactory standards. In order to become successful again, we need your total support. I know that there are people in this community who have special skills which could be shared with our young children. My main concern is for the children and their capacity to learn and grow in society. These children hold the key to our future.

If we give them nothing, then they will become nothing... Our children must be given an opportunity to excel in a positive manner. We, at Al Davies, would like to instill these attributes to the children, but we cannot do it alone. We are at a loss without your support or your assistance.

We have a booster club that meets every Friday at the Club, 1620 South 17th Street, Corner of 17th and Grant (just behind Stanley School), from 6:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. every Friday. These meetings are open to the public

I have given you all the facts, now the decision is up to you, the parents, the gardians, the uncles, the aunts, grandparents, and the community-at-large. Please come out and support your children; this club belongs to them.

I would like to take this time to thank the volunteers now donating their time to the club: Ms. Avis Reilly, is teaching a class on making candy. Mrs. Penton, its teaching arts & crafts. Mrs. Ramona Womack, has a jazzercise class, free for the children; and an aerobics jazzercise class every Saturday morning at 10:30 a.m. for women, $1 per class. (all proceeds go for the boys and girls). Mr. William Hawkins has a martial arts class. Mr. Owen Satterwhite will be conducting a cartooning class beginning in the fall. Stay posted for the starting dates. Thank you again for your support.

A Paper For All People

We've got Lotto

You could win thousands, even millions, when you play Lotto, the new game from the Washington State Lottery. Because the jackpot grows 'til somebody wins! It's fun to play, and it's easy.

How to play.

Pick up a free Lotto play slip at any On-Line Games Agent. The play slip is divided into 10 games, each with a field of numbers from 1 to 40.

Decide how many games you want to play. You play two games for a dollar, and can play up to 10 games on a single play slip. The minimum play is one dollar.

Pick 6 numbers out of 40 for each game you play. Using pen or pencil (not red), mark the 6 numbers you've selected on the play slip for each game. Games must be played in pairs. You receive two games for each $1 played.

Hand the completed play slip to your On-Line Agent. The agent will enter it into the Ticket Distribution Machine, which will print out a Lotto ticket showing the numbers you selected, the drawing date, and the amount you played. The agent will return your play slip for possible future use.

Check your ticket. It is your responsibility to check your Lotto ticket to make sure it corresponds with the numbers you selected. Be sure to keep your ticket until after that week's drawing, as proof of purchase.

Quick Play option. If you prefer, the On-Line computer will randomly select six numbers for each game you wish to play. Just tell the Agent you want a "Quick Play" and state how many games you're playing.

How much you can win.

Evergreen Lotto is a parimutuel game, so the size of the jackpot depends upon how many people play. If more than one person wins, they share the Jackpot equally. The Lottery guarantees that the cash value of the First Prize Jackpot will be at least $500,000, no matter how many people play.

It could grow into the millions—all for the person (or to be divided equally among the persons) who match in any order all 6 winning numbers.

The second prize share is divided among all players who match 5 out of 6 winning numbers in any order and the third prize share is divided among all those who match 4 out of 6 winning numbers in any order. These prizes are determined by total Lotto sales and number of winners each week.

All prizes with a cash value of $250,000 or more will be paid in the form of a multiple-year annuity.

How to collect your prize.

Winning amounts will be announced to the public through the media and On-Line Sales Agents every Monday at 9 a.m. Prizes of up to $600 can be collected at any On-Line location. Winners of larger amounts must file a claim form with the Lottery. Forms are available from any Lottery Agent.
